WORKING PARTY

‘In order to save on expensive cleaning and maintenance, we hold a monthly working party on a Saturday morning starting at 09.30.

Together we clean and tidy the church, do a bit of necessary DIY or gardening, have a coffee and often some home-made goodies – and finish by about 11.30.

We are enormously grateful to the few loyal helpers who turn up month after month – but we desperately need a few more.

Please consider putting the dates into your diary and coming along. All are welcome – if you can do basic DIY please let us know in advance so that the churchwardens can plan jobs in advance.

Working party is almost always on the second Saturday of each month...
NOTE the next one will be on 10 February at 9.30.

See you there, Sue

FIRST STEPS
10TH JANUARY 2018
JESUS' BAPTISM

What a surprise when our naughty little sheep wakes up this morning and sees blue skies. He is so pleased and hopes that they will still be there when we go to church this afternoon for our First Steps service. Fingers crossed! And there is still blue sky and some sunshine and a little bit of cloud when our naughty little sheep, his friends and I walk up to church. It is chilly but a really nice day. In church they all go to find themselves somewhere comfortable to sit. Linda and Jan soon arrive and help to get everything ready for our service. We open our big church doors and wait patiently. First Suzanne arrives with Luke who is getting to be a big boy now. How lovely to see them. They are soon followed by Claire, with Grandma Merry! and little boy Luke. My goodness, we've got matching Lukes! In the end we make a very small but select group. The boys have fun choosing jingle bells and then we light our candles ready for our service to begin.

Today we are talking about Jesus' baptism and first we have a walk to the back of the church to look at our beautiful font. Then we have a peek to see what we can see under its great big lid. Do you know what is painted under there? Big Luke takes a look and sees a beautiful white bird painted at the top. He suggests that it might be a seagull! But it's really a lovely white dove. I think that it was a good guess even if it was wrong because Luke has probably seen more seagulls than white doves. It reminds us of Jesus' baptism because then a beautiful white dove hovered over Jesus' head. Jesus wasn't baptised in a font like ours, was he? He was baptised in the River Jordan and he went right under the water, didn't he? So he was soaking wet all over! Our naughty little sheep doesn't really like the thought of that. He doesn't like having a bath, not even a hot soapy one. He wouldn't like being soaked in the chilly waters of a river! He's shivering at the thought of it!

We hear that John the Baptist has been busy baptising lots of people but when Jesus comes to him to be baptised, John knows that Jesus is very special indeed. And when Jesus comes up out of the water the skies open above him and that lovely white dove, which is really the Holy Spirit, comes down and hovers over his head. And not only that but a loud voice is heard saying, "This is my son, my beloved, in whom I am well pleased." Wow, isn't that amazing because that is the voice of God, saying that Jesus is His very own son. Our naughty little sheep and his friends so love these stories about Jesus and his life. They think that they are a special blessing for us all. I think that they are right!

When we have listened to our story, sung our songs, and said our "Thank you" prayers and the prayer that Jesus taught us, it is time to blow out the candles on our little altar. Big Luke helps because he is a very good blower of candles! Now it is time to go into the hall for drinks, biscuits, and some time to play and a chat. Our naughty little sheep and his friends have all come rushing in and when they've had their drinks and biscuits, they make themselves comfortable so that they can watch the children play and Mums and Grandma chat. We may be small in number today but we have had a lovely time together, as always. We hope that everyone will join us for our next First Steps service on 14th February. It will be Valentine's Day so love will be in the air! It will also be Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. How the time is flying by!

God Bless
Rosemary Austin

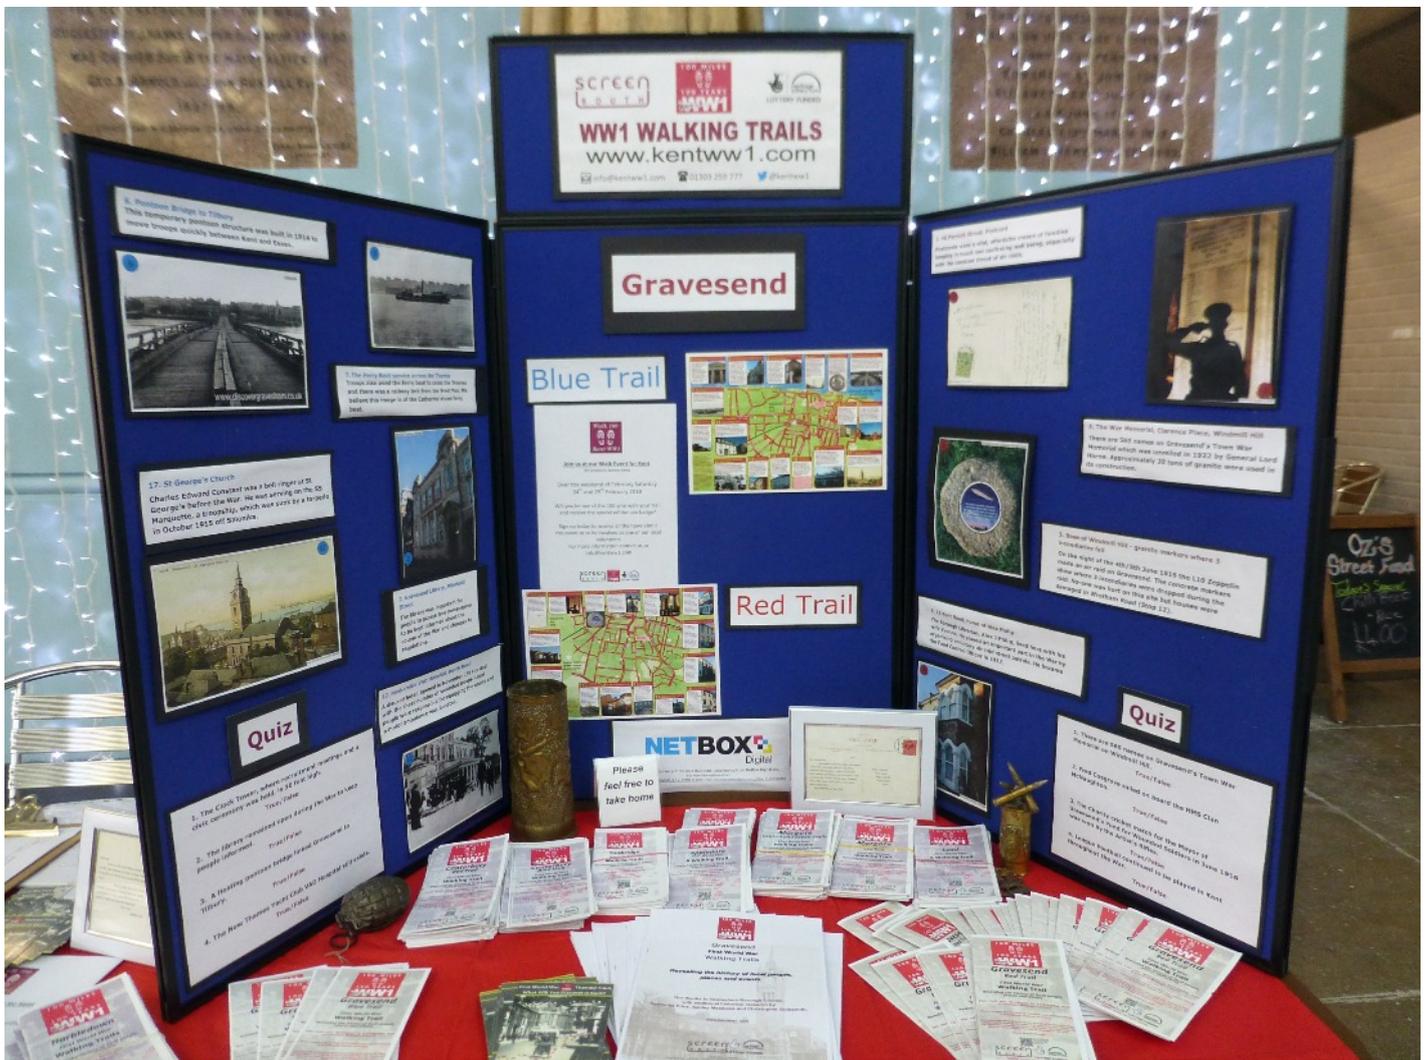

Mothers' UNION
Christian care for families

Mothers' Union January 2018 meeting.

At our January meeting we were very pleased to welcome 22 members and friend to hear Steve Humphries tell us about working for a Russian bank (where he met Jasmine!) and about their recent Trip to Moscow and St Petersburg. This was illustrated by some beautiful photos. of the various cathedrals and churches, the rivers, the museums and art galleries, The Kremlin, Red Square and Gum: a department store which looked very like Harrods outside at night, lit with strings of white lights. Jacqueline asked for help with refreshments at Tony Larkin's Requiem Mass the next day, Margot had a thank you letter from MSH for the donation to the Christmas appeal supporting Work against FGM and Sheila asked for volunteers to help run the meetings each month by doing prayers, refreshments, setting up etc..

Our next meeting is our AGM when we hope to review and look forward, have an informal Holy Communion and as it is also Shrove Tuesday to share in pancakes! It is 7.30 on Tuesday 13th February. Don't miss it!

Launching Church of England Digital Labs

Do you have a bright idea for an app, website or social media campaign to bring more people to faith in Jesus Christ, grow and develop disciples, support your local church or the national church?

We're launching Church of England Digital Labs to gather together the many Christian coders, creatives and techies who have the skills and passion for using technology to aid the church. Whether you have a fully formed plan for an app, website or social media campaign or just a spark of an idea, we want to hear from you.

The Digital Comms team at Church House has been established for about eight months now. We've seen the impact that digital and social media campaigns at Christmas and Easter can have in encouraging existing Christians and bringing new people to faith. There is so much more we can do, which is why we're establishing Digital Labs.

Our first event will be taking place on Saturday 24th February 2018 (10am-9pm) in central London. You'll get to meet and network with people like you, spend time refining your ideas and taking advantage of the knowledge and skills available all in one room.

Towards the end of the day you'll get the chance to pitch your idea to a panel of industry experts with the aim of turning the best ideas we hear into one or two solutions that the Church of England will build and make available to our 16,500+ churches.

Digital Labs is part of the Church of England's Renewal and Reform programme, aimed at helping us become a growing Church for all people and for all places.

Adrian Harris is Head of Digital Communications at the Church of England

Do you or a member of your family have any interesting stories from World War 1

As part of the national commemorations of WW1 we are looking to reproduce stories that congregation members might like to submit of their relatives, or local men, who engaged in the conflict!

If you have a family story, perhaps with a photograph of the person you are writing about that you would like to be considered for inclusion in an edition of Christ Church magazine over the next two years please let Sue Brewer or Mike Cubitt know.

We are hoping to get enough copy to enable a different story to be produced in the magazine during the four years anniversary period.

All photographs will be returned, but please mark on the back your name and address.

Bishop's message of hope for the New Year

In his January video message, Bishop James talks about how the beginning of the New Year is a time for hope, and that as Christians, we are a people of hope.

While recognising that for some another year passing can be a time of anxiety, it is also a moment to look forward

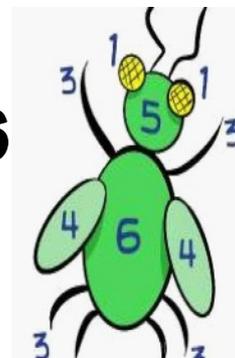

"At the wonderful season of Epiphany, we remember the shining out of God's light in Jesus Christ - those wonderful, enigmatic figures of the wise men who symbolise the nations and peoples of the world to whom that light shines."

Bishop James goes on to share a number of initiatives the Diocese is engaged with this year that provide opportunities for hope.

These include Hope 2018, an initiative to encourage and support churches to engage in their communities, and also, 40 Stories of Hope - a book containing a collection of stories written by those connected with prisons, about how their lives have been transformed through Jesus Christ.

Welcoming Transgender People – an update

Following the debate and vote at General Synod in July 2017 on Welcoming Transgender People, the House of Bishops has prayerfully considered whether a new nationally commended service might be prepared to mark a gender transition. The Bishops are inviting clergy to use the existing rite Affirmation of Baptismal Faith. New guidance is also being prepared on the use of the service. The Bishop of Norwich, the Rt Revd Graham James, said: "The Church of England welcomes transgender people and wholeheartedly wishes for them to be included in the life of the Church.

"On the matter of whether a new service is needed, the House of Bishops has decided that the current service that is used to affirm baptism can be adapted.

"Clergy always have the discretion to compose and say prayers with people as they see fit."

A paper discussing the decision will be published before the February session of Synod.

Rain, Rain, Rain

Bang, bang, bang, went the hammer.

Noah was building a boat, a very big boat, big enough for all his family. Big enough to save two of every kind of animal when the great flood came.

God was very sad about the world. It was all spoilt, the people were nasty and unkind. Not Noah though, Noah was nice, he was a good man and was friends with God.

"I have to get rid of all this nastiness," God said to Noah one day. "The beautiful world I made is all spoiled. There's going to be a great flood. Enough water to take away everything that is bad. But you will be safe. Go and build a boat Noah."

Noah did as God said. He always did as God said.

Bang, bang, bang, went the hammer. At last the boat was built and they called it The ARK.

The animals were so excited. "Quack, quack" said the ducks. "Moo, moo," said the cows. "Hurry, hurry," said the geese. "Cheep, cheep," chirped the sparrows. "Don't leave us behind."

"All aboard" Said Noah. And God shut the door of the ark behind them.

A whole week went by, then the rain began, it rained and it rained until the ark was afloat. It still kept raining till all the rivers filled up, then it rained some more till the mountains were covered. There was nothing to see except water - the ark was alone in the world.

At long last the rain stopped, and the water went down. Now Noah could see the tops of the mountains - the ark came gently to rest.

Noah opened a window and out flew the raven. There was water everywhere and nowhere to land. So the raven kept on flying. Noah waited a bit. Then he sent out the dove. It flew back with a new green leaf in its beak, and everyone cheered - slowly, slowly, the water went down.

Noah sent the dove out once more. This time it did not come back. The water had gone and the land was nearly dry.

"You can come out now," God called to Noah. "It's quite safe, and don't worry, there will never be another flood like this, I promise. Look, I've painted a rainbow in the sky as a sign I will never forget."

Then Noah and his family, and all the animals came out of the ark. They sniffed the good smell of the damp earth, and they felt the firm ground under their feet.

They skipped and hopped and jumped for joy, thanking God for keeping them all safe.
