The next meeting of the Mustard Seed will take place on Thursday 21st May at 3.00 pm in the church hall when Tony Larkin, from Gravesend Historical Society, will be giving a talk with reference to The First World War.

This promises to be an interesting talk and we look forward to you joining us, especially if you have not been to Mustard Seed before.

Are you interested in exploring the Christian faith in the company of others?

We will shortly be starting the Pilgrim course, a course set up by the Church of England to explore faith.

There will be meetings—weekly in the afternoon and the evening.

Please sign the list at the back of the church if you are interested, indicating whether you prefer afternoon or evening.
