

From David Croydon ...

I am rising 80 next month and have found it difficult to sit still for the last 79 years—ask Vena.

To calm my nerves, I have decided to set off from Gravesend and walk around the Kent coast, and then along the Sussex coastline to Eastbourne and strike inland back through Tunbridge Wells and home.

This is an opportunity for all our young brethren to get a little exercise—I would be delighted to have company on a day to day basis for a half or a full day. I have always had company before and met fresh people and enjoyed myself.

Richard will vouch for me (possibly)!!

To ease the pain, Vena has “volunteered” to deliver and collect along the way, and meet up at lunchtime.

The mileage and walking will be as gentle as usual—between 6 and 12 miles per day. I have even been persuaded in the past to stop at tea/coffee shops on a pretty regular basis. The Turner at Margate does very good coffee as does the Avocet Gallery at Rye Harbour. Could there be a better way of testing the merits of different ice creams, or solving the Greek problem.

Once you decide to join up—we can fix the timing. We start on Thursday 16th July and finish on Wednesday 12th August.

By joining up you will be helping to raise funds for Ellenor and Alzheimer’s Support—why? Simply because you will be wearing a hi vis tabard and carrying a collecting tin.

What could be easier?

If you feel too fragile, all you have to do is sponsor me—the list is at the back of the church.

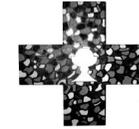

Don’t forget, photos may be published of those who walk with me, so there will perhaps be no hiding place. The photographer, who shall be nameless, has been known to sneak up on us unawares.

Help me make this a bumper effort—I have promised my “driver” this will be my last long distance effort—about 220 miles.

God's Gang in August

During the five Sundays in August there will be no formal 'God's Gang' teaching for the children. Instead we will keep the services fairly short and include music and other items to engage the children in the congregation.

On 9th August the sermon will be an 'all-age' talk and the service particularly 'child friendly', and the Church family BBQ will take place after the service.

If children become restless and parents need to give them a bit of space, some activity sheets and colouring materials will be laid out in the hall—please feel free to use these at any time. No supervision will be provided—parents need to supervise their own children at all times when they are in the hall.

The next meeting of Ifield Ladies will be on Wednesday 15th July in the Church Hall at 7.30 pm when Irina Fridman will talk about "Jewish Life in the Medway Towns"
Visitors are always welcome to attend.

Praying Together

As the East Gravesend cluster of churches begin to co-operate more in mission and ministry, it is important that we also take regular opportunities to pray together.
